LUELLA presents Ruth, here at Maple Spring, this Thursday, May 16th at 6:45pm. Free admission. Everyone is welcome – and encouraged - to attend! “Meet Ruth, the simple Moabite girl, who longs for some excitement in her small town life. Listen as she wonders about the strangers who settle in town....the HEBREWS. You will see her life turned upside down when it is decided that she will learn more about these Hebrews by becoming part of their family!!! You will experience how her love for her gentle mother-in-law grew through the years until at last she was willing to give up everything that she knew and loved to go with Naomi to Israel. The love story between Ruth and Boaz is one of the most beautiful stories in all history and you will hear about it firsthand.” A time of fellowship will follow the performance.
